WELCOME TO Utterly FABULOUS

For over nine years, in addition to The 'Tranny Guide', WayOut Publishing has mailed a free newsletter to over 5000 readers. This newsletter has evolved into a new type of magazine that you can receive in the post, pick up in shops and bars or download from the net - all for free ... Now THAT IS ... Utterly FABULOUS.

Born out of the belief that the transgender community is the new frontier for alternative lifestyles - this magazine fears nothing and indeed celebrates the lives we live.

With more pages and full colour we hope to gain the support of companies that wish to attract the custom of the enormous community of drag queens, trendy trannies, part and full time cross-dressers, pre and post op transsexuals - plus those that respect, support and love us.

No longer is polite, intelligent society fazed by the concept of life styles thought of as "wrong", even illegal, just a few years ago. Much progress has been made to legislate for the acceptance of transgender lifestyles and we believe we are on the verge of a breakthrough for those that want / need to break free of past gender stereotyping. In Utterly FABULOUS we aim to chart the changes. In this edition we recognise that as consumers we buy cameras, cars, gadgets. We go to the cinema, theatre and restaurants. We are the lavender pound, we like pretty things and we love to shop.

With support from business we will be able to provide a free ALL inclusive magazine that aims to support and promote ALL events and ALL opportunities on the TG scene throughout the UK. Bring YOUR news to the TG community by contacting us with reviews and details of your future events. In-between issues, news will be posted on www.wayout-publishing.com

MISS ALTERNATIVE LONDON - OCTOBER 2002

Our cover features Leah our outgoing Miss Alternative London. She was so thrilled with her prize of a holiday for two in Ibiza that she took six friends along. 'Respect Holidays' have an exclusive, tranny friendly resort with bar/restaurant, pool, jacuzzi, air conditioned bungalows with kitchen & bathroom. Other winners will share in over £2000 worth of prizes donated by (amongst others). The WayOut Club, Image Works. The Boudoir, Lipstick Powder & Paint and Charles Fox.

DIARIES, TRIPS & EVENTS

There are so many TG events around the UK that you could be mingling, mixing and mingling every weekend. Each edition of Utterly FABULOUS will include both National and London diaries.

LIPSTICK POWDER & PAINT THE MOVIE IS IN PRODUCTION

Many readers have applied to be cast as extras in this extraordinary film. Those selected will hear from the production office shortly and all details are safely held with due respect for confidentiality and discretion. Jay Wheddon who is making this movie tells us that the set for the WayOut Club scene is being built at Pinewood Studios and shooting has been unavoidably delayed till October. More extras, to create a WayOut Club style crowd, are required. The opportunity is explained in much more detail on www.wayout-publishing.com

TRANNY TRIPS TO BUILD YOUR CONFIDENCE AND BLOW YOUR MIND

You need not be lonely or nervous when stepping out in your heels. Jodie (The Boudoir Dressing Service) and Nas (Top to Toe Beauty) organise regular luxury "tranny trips". Recent trips have included Royal Ascot, Taboo, Chicago and Bombay Dreams (reviewed in this issue).

Future trips planned include School Disco.com (currently London's biggest disco phenomena) on Friday 6th September. The fabulous show Mamma Mia which weaves Abba's greatest hits into a wonderful love story on Wednesday 18th September. Richard O'Brien's Drag Race AND Transfandango Ball in Manchester (see page 6 for details) on Saturday 28th September. The Skin Two Rubber Ball - a visually stunning and truly unforgettable fashion experience that really must not be missed on Monday 8th October. On Friday 10th January 2003 the team is organising a trip to see The Nutcracker Sweet at the Royal Opera House Covent Garden - Tchaikovsky's score contains a wealth of glorious melodies while the revised staging brings it all to life with bags of Christmas charm.

The Boudoir also offers ad hoc trips to incredibly tranny friendly restaurants, Tea at the Ritz, Night Clubs and shopping trips to London's West End stores such as Selfridges & Harvey Nicholls. Each of these trips is personally tailored to suit you and your budget.

On each trip the girls provide a full make over, wig styling and false nails along with full wardrobe (if required). Transport and escorting is also included as is a fabulous buffet before leaving The Boudoir.

For more details please call Miss Jodie Lynn or Miss Tracie Ross on 020 8365 7755 or e-mail: info@theboudoironline.com and make sure you check www.theboudoironline.com to keep up to date with all the opportunities that the girls create.

If you have a LONDON NIGHT on offer let us know for the next edition and our web site news

ON THE TOWN by Daniel LaVerne

It is easy to think that London, and in particular Covent Garden, is the centre of the universe simply because that is where we at Charles Fox are based. Although it was not so long ago that a simple yokel like myself was terrified of travelling all the way to London simply to do some shopping. As one grows older, and dare I suggest braver, a visit to the 'big city' should be something to look forward to and to plan ahead for with great excitement. It is in this sort of spirit that we look forward to greeting many of our TV/TG/TS clients.

From the initial call for an appointment we can usually gauge that their visit is part of a weekend of activities and in this respect we have no hesitation in allowing our clients to dress after their makeover. It's part of the fun! Also our make-up artist Valme Garcia's excellent work holds a great deal of excitement for client and artist alike as her transformations can often be astounding.

Valme has built up an excellent reputation working within the community and absolutely nothing fazes her. Born in Barcelona her natural, laid-back demeanour almost disguises the fine artist at work paying great attention to detail.

Valme is keen to enlighten us about products. At present the market is flooded with new brands and products tempting the affluent customer. One of the advantages about consulting a professional artist is that they are unlikely to have been influenced by fancy packaging and false promises. Artists such as Valme are exposed to a wide range of products. Using her judgement to sift through these she is able to offer extensive advice thus making your choices much simpler. Currently she is very keen on the new Dermacolor Light range, which tends to bridge the gap between heavy camouflage and subtle daywear make-up. However the important factor is to find out what's right for YOUR skin and YOUR look!

So, if you are planning a glamorous weekend on the town, then why not start your weekend with a consultation with Valme at Charles Fox. If you've spent a fortune on your foundations, outfit, and the heels - then make your face the centre of your own personal universe.

Utterly FABULOUS INTERVIEW WITH PRINCESS LEAH
By Pandora De Pledge

Q. What did it feel like to win Alternative Miss London?

A. Exhilarating! Literally a dream come true and quite a surprise. But to tell you the truth after the heats I was exhausted.

Q. Did you think you would win?

A. No! I thought I might make the top three (I had been planning it for a year after all) and as I always say, "Piss poor planning equals piss poor prizes."

Q. Have you had many official engagements, such as kissing babies and opening supermarkets?

A. Yes, seven Quick Save's and a Poundstretcher! But I'm sadly allergic to nappies.

Q. Your prize was a holiday to Ibiza, did you enjoy yourself?

A. Absolutely, it did rain somewhat, but it's a fabulous place and we all had a blast in Ibiza Old Town.

Q. Apparently you took another six friends with you, has Ibiza recovered yet?

A. Not completely. We definitely left our mark and everyone loved it, which is why we are returning later this year with 'Respect Holidays'.

Q. What tips would you give to other girls who are going to enter Alternative Miss London this year?

A. Pre-plan your routine and try to think of something original and eye-catching (and if all else fails, flirt with the judges!).

Q. Will you ever re-enter?

A. No! As I believe in giving others a chance plus I'm getting on a bit (I believe I am the oldest winner to date!).

Q. Was there any bitchiness back stage?

A. None at all. The girls were great and only too willing to help one another.

Q. As a beauty queen do you have a message to others?

A. World Peace of course! But also just to be the best that you can be, have fun and be safe.

Q. What would you say to girls out there who are new to the scene and maybe a little nervous?

A. Use professional services and believe me, you will gain the confidence and skills you need to face the world with your head held high. Just take a look at my Image Works pictures - they really boost a girls confidence, thanks Pandora, xxx.

The 10th Tranny Guide NEW
 "The Tranny Bible" a must have. This edition looking at the changes over 10 years has more reports, colour and pics than ever before. Listings updated with many new entries for 2002/2003 (back issues also available with never repeated articles pictures and reports)

The Tranny Guide For Your TV (the video)
 Cross-Dressing How? Why? Where? Based on the advise in the Tranny Guide this video sets out to put it all on to your television screen. Through this video you can see the 'girls', chat in the dressing room. You can visit dressing services, shops, clubs and partners at home. Then in the studio, presenter Laura asks Vicky Lee one more question ...

 "Tranny Sex - Can we talk?"

'His Majesty the Queen' (book)
 Co authored by Steve & Cathy Marks
 This part autobiography, part "how to" book tells many interesting facts about the life of the worlds most highly paid female impersonator. It includes many make-up tips, celebrity encounters, fashion advice, and over 200 photographs from Frank's personal album. Frank adds a great perspective to the question, is it legitimate for a man to impersonate a woman?
 "I make more money than the President of the United States how much more legitimate can you get?"

Girl Talk - (Magazine) NEW
 From the West coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most glossy photo shoots on the tranny scene in a VERY professional Hollywood stylee. The models are great the advice from make-up artists and stylists is excellent. The reports on the USA scene are fun and enlightening. This is a great magazine to collect and its all good clean fun. 7 editions in stock

Simply Gorgeous - (Magazine)
 From the East coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most sexy girls in print from all around the world. News views and reports make this a very rounded interesting read. A fair degree of very good looking "chicks with dicks" make this just the magazine for those who like their girls to have a bit extra. And lets face it if they didn't show it you just would not know!
4 copies per year 3 editions in stock

The Lazy Crossdresser (book) NEW
 The joky chapter titles like My Size - a random number between 8 and 16 undermines the quality of the advice in this book with 177 pages of text and sketches. But don't let me undermine the friendly, open and down right honesty of the author Charles Anders. This is a good read and is genuinely helpful.

Transgender Community NEWS- (Magazine) NEW
 "Reflecting the progress of transgender people in the USA"
 From the Renaissance Transgender Association Inc. Full of pictures, reports from weekend 'get together' and events across the states. Plus news, reviews, and thoughtful articles. Aiming to educate not titilate. This magazine helps those that do not cross-dress or identify as transgendered to help understand and love those that do.

NO.3 GREEN STREET . MAYFAIR . LONDON W1

HOUSE of DRAG News Update by Steffan

Club nights go from strength to strength.
Many are now enjoying the weekly Wednesday evening of intimate cabaret and cocktails at House of Drag. On the last Friday of every month, the bigger, more flamboyant, "Silicone Dolls" parties. Now share the glamorous Mayfair venue. Pandora De Pledge joins me regularly with a tray of fondant fancies and the odd pickled gherkin. The mixture of people makes for a great way to finish the month. .

House of Drag celebrates First Birthday
On Wednesday 17th July 2002 a fabulous night was had by all and London's Dragaratti where out in full force to enjoy one year of House of Drag's weekly club nights (still only £5 entry and special drinks promotions every week). I was thrilled at the turn out for this special night. Truly an overload of Glamour and Glitz! Thank you girls.

Celebrities Visiting House of Drag
Some of the more notable faces to be seen frequenting House of Drag include the ever ageless Richard O'Brien of Rocky Horror fame, artist Molly Parkin and my mother Bonitta Whitfield. Movie maker and actor Jay Wheddon is a regular visitor. Recently, musician and tranny scene queen Miss Nessa Glen was spotted chatting with one of Canada's most popular drag artistes, Mistress Gartina. MTV drag celeb Miss Kimberly visited the venue and gave it the thumbs up. Even HRH Her Majesty the Queen popped in during her very busy Golden Jubilee to give a quick speech but then she only lives a few hundred yards away. The venue deserves glamour and House of Drag does it proud but Miss Lynn Daniels always manages to surpass us all with her fabulous outfits.

House of Drag, "The Agency",
Become a celebrity yourself! Public speaker and poet Miss Rikki Radula, recently auditioned for a television commercial, as did Miss Vanilla who was selected in the first four but was apparently pipped at the post (this time) by Miss Darcy who was whipped off to Australia to feature in an 'Archers' advert. Of course some of the House of Drag models live full time overseas such as Miss La Troya, Pamela and Sir James who work for Amnesia in Ibiza.

We suffered a brief hiccup with our web site recently but we are pleased to announce that we are back on line and due to public demand we are launching two new sections to the House of Drag agency. A TV/TS Model section to fulfil the many requests we receive from the media and advertising and a GoGo, podium dancer section for boys, girls and of course inbetweenies. If you think you have what it takes to become a TV/TS model or podium dancer please visit me at the club or forward a recent photo along with some info about yourself, such as qualifications, special skills, languages spoken and vital statistics etc to

Steffan, P.O.Box 70
Enfield, Middlesex, EN1 2AE, alternatively email me at steffan@houseofdrag.com

All of the House of Drag models wish the new publication 'Utterly FABULOUS', the best of luck and I encourage all of you to help it become the best that it can be. Support it - It's just what our scene needs".

SISTERS of PERPETUAL Gossip

Each issue I will be asking drag celebrities to bring you a touch of drag lifestyle. This issue it is my pleasure to welcome... Miss Darcy, catwalk model and Heaven's heavenly host ...

Been sitting staring at the blank computer screen in the sweltering heat trying to think of something really witty and highbrow to write for my first instalment to the new gossip column, guess what? I can't!

The fact is I don't have any really juicy titbits to share as I have been away for a few weeks and it seems nothing happened in that time.

So all I can really tell you is about my trip.

Australia was my final destination to film three television adverts for 'Archers Aqua' with Stephan Elliot (director of Priscilla Queen Of The Desert), but before arriving on set in OZ I was whizzed to New York for a costume fitting, then LA for shoes. After getting over two days of the worst jet lag, filming lasted 10 days, then it was straight back home.

Suppose it was fun in a way but hard work. I would have loved to hang out in Sydney for a bit but alas it wasn't meant to be. What I did get to see of the 'DRAG' scene looked pretty damn hot, the girls really know how to throw a party, got a major cigarette burn on my ass to prove it, don't ask!

Until next my lovelies, peace, joy, harmony and above all glamour.

Darcy xxx

Brighton is buzzing with plenty of drag in evidence, both on the stage and in the clubs.

For bang up to date news just pick up a copy of 'Gscene' from any gay bar and you will see drag on virtually every page.

You can't miss my good friend Stephanie Starlett who is all over Brighton like a rash. She is resident artiste along with club host Diva Bliss every Sunday at Club Rio at Rio Carnival, Savoy Centre, Pool Valley (8pm -1am £4 (£3 B4 9pm) The club is already a favourite with the Brighton 'Girls'.

WAYOUT RESTAURANT

Many of you prefer the relaxed atmosphere of a restaurant to a night club - surely a lot easier on the feet. Others like to enjoy a good meal before moving on to a late night of boozing and shmoozing.

Located in the City of London close to all the Saturday night TG venues WayOut has an exclusive restaurant. From October 5th Steffan or I will be there to welcome TG friendly clients to take a table and introduce you to our 'WayOut specials' menu offering a range of cuisine including Thai, Indian, Mediterranean and traditional UK favourites. Prices start at £15 for a two course meal with wine.

TIME TO CONTRIBUTE TO THE 11th "TRANNNY BIBLE"

While you are enjoying trannyng please help others to join you by collecting a few pictures and writing a brief report for the next Tranny Guide. Miss Christie McNicol, TS superstar from Oz has been a regular at "WayOut" during her UK visit. She is now preparing her report on Australia where she tours with her show www.boylesque.com

UNLICENSED TAXI TOUTS - "JUST SAY NO" SAY POLICE

We are in very good contact with the City of London police, in fact, we are helping them with diversity awareness training. One issue that the police are aware of in the City is the problem of unlicensed taxi touts whose cars are in many cases in a dangerous condition and not insured. They say there is a high level of reported robbery and abuse (and worse) perpetrated by so called taxi drivers. You are advised to say NO to their offers and

SAD LOSS OF PERFORMANCE ARTIST

We are all so sad to hear of the untimely death of club legend "Transformer". Our hearts go out to his friends and family.

RIGHT ROYAL JUBILEE

I am sure many of you enjoyed part of the Jubilee celebrations. For me watching Her Maj slow down her Range Rover driver when she returned to The Mall was the peak. Meanwhile in London WayOut did its bit and wish the world to know that ... If God should save anyone ... lets have the Queen "z" at the top of the list.

Bombay Dreams is the latest Andrew Lloyd Webber musical to hit the West End. Without any doubt this is the most visually spectacular and aesthetically stunning show that I have ever seen.

Set in the slums of Bombay, this is a classic rags to riches story where the lead male character (Akash) makes it into the world of Bollywood Movies and falls in love with the lead female character (Rani), the daughter of a wealthy film producer. Ironically meanwhile (Sweetie) a transsexual "eunuch" loves Akash. Unfortunately Akash's love for Sweetie is brotherly and Rani is already engaged to be married, but as in all fairy tales there is a happy ending.

The scene changes and sets are truly stunning and range from prison cells, the slums of Bombay and Bollywood Movie sets. The highlight of the show for me was the "Wet Sari Scene" where 10 massive jets of water shoot out of the floor to form a circle around the entire dance troupe to leave them all soaking wet. From the opening scene to the grand finale, traditional Indian dancing with a modern day heavy bangra beat combine to create possibly the most energetic dance scenes you are likely to see in the West End.

Many of the dance routines feature six transsexual characters including Sweetie who dances for tourists in return for money. The entire musical is injected with camp humor and at times, drag influenced glamour. A television journalist (Kitty) is indeed a true drag queen. Her hair, clothes and personality are so outrageous and her constant catty remarks and self adoration are reminiscent of many a drag queen on the circuit today.

The display of spectacular costumes is constant throughout this show, with sequins, feathers and plenty of gold to keep things interesting. The traditional Indian prints and colours are vibrant and inspirational and are so in vogue. Musically some of the numbers are a bit slow, but the main song of the show "Shakalaka Baby" is sure to have you singing along and humming the tune for days afterwards.

I cannot recommend this show enough to anyone of any age or of any cultural background. Great dancing, high energy routines, fantastic musical content and unlimited glamour are just a few of the things that you can expect to see in "Bombay Dreams"

All the answers to your most frequently asked questions about the WayOut Club ...

Q - HOW MUCH IS ENTRY ? 9pm -- 11pm Entry £5 trannies (£8 standard entry) 11pm - 4am Entry £5 tranny members - £8.00 other members £10.00 standard entry for non members

Q - DO I HAVE TO BE A MEMBER ? No, WayOut is open to anyone. Membership IS available as a discount scheme for regulars at £25 for 12 months from our reception with instant discount on entry fee

Q - IS THE CLUB ONLY FOR TRANNIES? No there are as many men and women as there are all types of transgendered people. Every one describes it as relaxed and friendly.

Q - IS THERE A DRESS CODE ? No never. You can wear whatever you like and you will always feel comfortable and in good company. However the girls have far more respect for a guy who makes an effort

Q - IS IT EASY TO PARK ? Very Easy - There is ample free parking available on single yellow lines and parking bays very close to the club. Parking on double yellows, or with your wheels on the pavement or in a designated parking space may still result in a fine, even very late. This is a very safe and discreet area on Saturday nights. We are supported by the City Police for your safety.

Q - WHAT WILL TAXI DRIVERS THINK IF I DRESS ? London black cab drivers are the best in the world and have seen everything. It is very unusual to find a driver that does not treat trannies with respect. We also recommend two private companies :

Express Cars ...020 7403 3333
Freedom Cabs ..020 7734 1313

Q - CAN I GET A TAXI EASILY WHEN I LEAVE ? Yes we have a licensed dispatcher in our reception who will normally have a car for you immediately. Please don't use the unlicensed taxi touts.

Q - WHERE CAN I STAY?

The favourite hotel which is the friendliest hotel for trannies is:

The Philbeach Hotel, Philbeach Gardens Earls Court 020 7373 1244 (you are almost guaranteed to be among other trannies at the hotel) - enjoy breakfast en femme. Local taxi service to WayOut approx £20

The following hotels are ALL regularly used by visitors to The WayOut Club however not all encourage "dressing" for breakfast!

Also in Earls Court

The Beaver Hotel Philbeach Gardens in Earls Court 020 7373 4553

Trebovre Hotel, Trebovre Road, in Earls Court 020 7370 3310

Within a few minutes walking distance of the club

There are three super hotels. Ask for Saturday rates and you should be able to negotiate a great room for about £60

The Tower Thistle Hotel Very popular with many regulars. This hotel overlooks Tower Bridge and is very busy with tourists in the summer. 020 7481 2575

The Chamberlain Hotel Brand new and the closest to the club (Just round the corner in Minories) free street parking Saturday and Sunday 020 7680 1500

Novotel Hotel Again just around the corner free street parking Saturday and Sunday 020 7265 6000
