For those studying or experiencing or those just plain trying to get your head round gender, sex and sexuality this book is an excellent place to start.

NEW The Third Sex (book)

The 'kathoei' phenomenon has been part of Thai culture for generations, it is the subject of a fascinating new book by Dr Richard Totman, a prize research fellow at Oxford University's Nuffield and a widely-travelled theatre director. He became probably the first "farang" (Thai for Westerner) to infiltrate the mysterious world of the ladyboys. He lived for months with kathoei girls and their families, learnt the language and spent much of his time talking to dozens of them and sharing their unique lifestyle.

GINA The Woman Within (book)

This book relates Gina Large's traumatic and very reluctant transgender journey. Giving a powerful insight into the suffering of gender dysphoria. It's a truly remarkable story and a wake-up call to society.

Crossing The Line (book)

Photographer Sarah Davidmann presents her record of images that appear to exist somewhere between the polarities of male and female. Hard back book that reflects the visions and characters present on the London scene at the beginning of the new Millennium, including many who frequented The WayOut Club.

The Transgender Underground (book)

This book exposes the real lives, opinions and sexual orientation of over a dozen members of the 'third sex'. Multi media artist, German born Claudia Andrei studied and frequented Ron Storme's at Stepney during his last year interviewing many of the regulars. You may well have met the people featured or indeed be the people featured. A wonderful snap shot of this period in time.

The Tranny Guide For Your TV (video)

HIDE & SLEEK's FABULOUS MISS TV SCOTLAND WEEKEND
by Miss Jodie Lynn

Lorraine Walker and her partner Louise started a company called Hide & Sleek some years ago, offering everything from made to measure clothes right through to a dressing service and of course this annual event.

My team including Miss Nas and my mum Maureen and I took 8 gurls flying with BA to Edinburgh, there we were met by Louise (in boy mode) with 2 immaculately uniformed chauffeurs complete with peak caps, holding a big sign saying "The Boudoir". What a lovely touch!!

At The King Malcom Hotel there were already numerous trannies milling around the reception area, enjoying the opportunity to be dressed for the complete weekend. The hotel staff could not have been more pleasant, respectful and helpful.

The Friday 'Ice Breaker Party' helped everybody mingle. My clients agreed that the Scottish tranny population are incredibly nice people. A buffet was followed by the Hide & Sleek fashion show showing Lorraine's new Collection of 'Made to Measure' designs. There was a very funny comedy section in the show on fashion faux pas's, like breast forms showing above low cut dresses and stockings and suspenders showing beneath short skirts. After the show we all bopped away on the dance floor till late.

Next day after a shopping trip all of my clients entered the evenings Miss TV Scotland beauty pageant. With all our makeovers done and all our gurls looking fantastic. The nervous tension in the air was electric. The winner of the over 50's category was announced. A tall, red-haired gurl from Scotland called Diane.

Then 'Miss TV Scotland' winners were announced - In third place was a very pretty gurl from Glasgow called Emma White. In second place was a gurl in an amazing corset called Zazoo. Then the winner was finally introduced. "The winner of Miss TV Scotland 2003 is ..... from London..... Miss Sarah Gray!!!!". My gurls, Nas, my mum and I all erupted with cheers, whistles and every other form of celebratory noise possible.

Sarah later said to me "I've only been dressing properly for less than a year...I've done so much in that time!!". It really did mean so much to her to win this prize. I was so thrilled for her. All of the other Boudettes were thrilled for Sarah and celebrated way into the early hours of the morning with her.

The nicest thing about this weekend, was the way the Scottish people treated us. We were made to feel so welcome and comfortable. Lorraine and Louise are both absolute diamonds and I want to thank them from the bottom of my heart for everything that they did for us. We look forward to seeing them again next year.

Jodie and her team at the Boudoir arrange a wide range of trips and events in addition to a full dressing service. HEDWIG COMING TO BRIGHTON APRIL 2004

The multi award winning transgendered rock musical 'Hedwig and the Angry Inch' is coming to the Brighton Festival in April 2004 for its UK premiere. It rocks, it tells a story it is 'Hedwig and the Angry Inch'. Hedwig isn't so much a traditional musical theatre piece as a kick-ass, 90-minute rock concert coupled with a storyline that doubles as a standup comedy routine. Hedwig is the victim of a botched sex-change operation that has left her with little more than "an angry inch." Her heart-breaking search for identity "You have to give up something to get something" provides a resonance beyond the loud blond wig and louder rock score. Hedwig started at Don Hill's Squeezebox in 1994 but John Cameron Mitchell and Stephen Trask soon realised that they needed to do the show as a show piece rather than a band gig. It was also quickly realised that Hedwig and the Angry Inch could not be in a normal theatre. Then one of John's friends recommended a hotel down by the river (Hotel Riverview) as a space for the show. The result, after buying the space and transforming the hotel was the 'Jane Street Theatre'. It became the perfect home for Hedwig.

Across the United States this show has been a wonderful vehicle for tearing down some of the prejudice & barriers attached to the transgendered arena as has the 2001 movie adaptation worldwide. Get to know Hedwig rent the video. Buy the CD.

Hedwig starts with a preview at Brighthelm Community Centre, North Road, Brighton, E.Sussex Friday 30th April 2004. Opening night is Saturday 1st May then 4th-8th & 10th-15th. The show starts at 8pm. Ticket Prices range from £8-£14 and will be available from early 2004 at the festival box office 01273-709709 and through the website www.hedwigandtheangryinch.co.uk
