OUR THANKS TO ALL OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Well spring has sprung and this is the first edition of Utterly FABULOUS magazine for which we have asked a subscription to ensure your copy is delivered to your door. As you can imagine the team working on the magazine, and I, waited in trepidation for the your post. Initially over xmas there was only a dribble and we feared the worst as without subscribers we can't balance our books. Any fear was unfounded as the next week the post office presented us with a sack full of your letters. Our PO Box had been overflowing and most of our post had been put in a sack that they had forgotten to give us. Of course Utterly FABULOUS remains available FREE

TO COLLECT from The WayOut Club, your local bar, club, shop or service. (if not stocked please make sure we know - as we will add them to our distribution list and do let us know if they need more). Details of how to subscribe are on page 5 of this issue. The magazine is also available FREE to download from the internet as a PDF or subscribe online at www.wayout-publishing.com/fabulous.htm

RETURN OF THE WayOut Wine Bar EVERY FRIDAY

Starting from 16th April 04 The WayOut Wine Bar is EVERY Friday from 8pm till late. Entry £5 to T-Girls and £7 for respectful friends. The venue is TK's Lovatt Lane (off Eastcheap) London EC3 nr Monument Tube. This is a unique night exclusively for part time and full time T-Girls (Transgendered girls TV TS & CD) and their respectful friends. We are offering 2 floors to meet, mingle, mince, dance and dine.

The basement has it's own bar and a small dance floor to try out your new Jimmy Choos with DJ iMac our computer juke box - (full of disco classics from the 70's, 80's & 90's - no heavy house here). Regulars are invited to give music requests to DJ iMac which will soon be added to the library. On the ground floor is the "comfort zone" with a background music level and plenty of seating. In this area a full A La Carte menu and a cheaper snack menu will be available (last orders 10.30pm). The area is discrete and safe. Parking is easy and Changing facilities are available as well as secure cloakroom. We also offer the first floor as a private area with its own bar for private dining parties of 10 or more. (This is also available to book for group bookings on other nights).

RETURN ?? THE WayOut Wine Bar HISTORY

The WayOut Wine bar advert which is in this edition, is based on the flyer that launched the WayOut Wine bar back in 1993. At that time Steffan and myself were performing together and promoting venues such as Sunday nights at The Hippodrome Leicester Sq when Lee Whitby the manager of a small Wine Bar in Goodge Street asked us to promote her wine bar every Saturday. Vicky had just finished the first 'Tranny Guide' book and knew that the cross-dressing scene lacked a unique weekend "tranny night". At that time Ron Storme's 'Travestie Extrordinaire' was monthly and Ted's had a Thursday night at a predominantly lesbian and gay bar. Jamisons Wine Bar was transformed into The WayOut Wine Bar each week. Every sign was changed every wall picture was changed to Hollywood heroines. The first night was a great success attracting 100 people and has never had less than 100 since. So thorough was our makeover of the bar that many thought we had bought the bar, They would be amazed that they could not find the bar in the week. After one year we fell fowl of licensing laws and lost our venue in Goodge St but without losing a night we moved The WayOut Wine Bar a mile to Maceys (now a sports bar), opposite Miss Selfridge in Duke Street. It was while we were at Maceys that we started the Wayout CLUB which we held at Bar Circa, under the Satchi & Satchi building on Berkeley Square. The CLUB ran in parallel with the WINE BAR monthly for a year. A change of ownership and management at Maceys made us move again. During the move from Maceys to a bigger venue in Knightsbridge, under the Scotch House we merged the CLUB and the WINE BAR was no more ... UNTIL NOW.

Back at that time everyone at the WayOut CLUB would be familiar with 'The Tranny Guide'. It was still a time when everyone on the tranny scene was finding their feet. People were looking for "like minded others". Tranny Guide awards would be cheered with enthusiasm. We however, recognise that the WayOut CLUB has now evolved. Now many people visiting the club would not know the Tranny Guide book, and can't remember a time without the confidence to make that first step into mixed company. Now the WayOut CLUB is as much a diversity club as a transgender club. We believe this is why the club can be euphoric, spiritually uplifting but can also appear a little awesome to some who are not yet confident with diversity.. (I used to feel the same way about the late Kinky Gerlinky nights).

SO - Following a constant flow of requests for news of a Friday night we have now responded with our original concept for a new and more confident generation of T-Girls and their respectful friends to mix with "like minded others" in a quality venue and to make it their own.

I hope you will support the night and benefit from the opportunity of a unique FRIDAY T-Girl night.

Dear Miss Lee
Thank you so much for Utterly FABULOUS it has made me feel SO proud to be transgendered. Enclosed is my subscription. I can't wait for the next edition to proudly display on my coffee table. Friends are always amazed at the wonderful pictures and struggle to believe that these girls could be guys. Thanks again Nicole xx

Dear Vicky Lee
Just a note to say that to be able to go on receiving Utterly FABULOUS the annual £7.95 subscription charge is a small price to pay. The magazine is a truly excellent publication with great style and quality. It keeps all transgendered folk up to date with what is going on. Well done to you and your team.
Hoping our paths will cross one of these days.
Best wishes and lots of love xx
Rachel Cox

HAPPY BIRTHDAY to The WayOut CLUB 11 YEARS OLD

The WayOut Club celebrates its 11th Birthday on 17th April 2004. Now the calculations - yes that is 572 nights plus the nights at Circa in Berkley square in year two. We missed one night as it fell on Christmas day. This year in 2004 it does it again so we will be shut on Christmas day. The following week we will be open the night of New Years Day for "Tranny New Year Celebration". We hope you will join us to celebrate with your "Alternative Family".

WayOut WEB SITE MAJOR OVERHAUL

With the launch of the new WayOut Wine Bar on FRIDAYS, our web site needed to be updated but instead I gave it a complete overhaul. While doing this I did a routine Google search. The fact that there was another place called The WayOut Wine Bar was not a surprise. Then an amazing coincidence was pointed out to me ... This WayOut Wine Bar is located in ATRANI near Amalfi in Italy. At the newly overhauled web site you will find many new pictures and more pictures will be regularly added. So make it a regular visit www.thewayoutclub.com

RICHARD O'BRIENS Transfundango 2004 WILL BE HELD IN OCTOBER 30th IN LONDON

The London Marriot Hotel on Grosvener Square has been booked for the 30th October for the 3rd of Richard's Charity Ball's. The theme this year is "Halloween" and it is a black tie or costume dress code, leaving full scope for cocktail frock to ball gown or ott "witchy woo". As always all proceeds are for Manchester Children's Hospital for whom we have raised so far £60,000. Richard says of this money "A Marrow Transplant is often the last hope for children for whom chemotherapy has not been successful. Unfortunately even with a suitable donor the technological equipment is in short supply and very expensive". We are hoping to double the amount raised after this years event, while at the same time raising the profile of transgender peoples in main stream society. The London Marriot Hotel Ball room is beautiful and sits 550 for the three course meal followed by cabaret and dancing. By holding the event in London we expect strong support from celebrities, corporates and TG people alike. Already Kim Angel (UK Angels & Repartee), Vicky Valentine & Jasmin Clarke (Transmission) have pledged their help to promote the event. Richard is intent on making this the best Halloween party in London and the best TG event of the year. Book your ticket NOW and join "The man who put fishnets into halloween". See the advert for Wallness Children's Charity contact details. A new web site has details of all the past Transfundango events and the upcoming event It will be updated regularly with news of the up coming event throughout the year www.transfundango.co.uk

RON STORME'S Tribute Fall Ball

Peter White's love of (the Late) Ron Storme is as unswerving as many of Ron's friends. So many fondly remember those nights and the regulars who attended. Peter has arranged "A Ron Storme Tribute Fall Ball" an event that he hopes will be the first true reunion of "Ron's Regulars" and that the tribute will become an annual event. The venue is The Pink Punters Club in Milton Keynes on 2nd October 04. The £15 tickets (which are only available in advance) are limited to 400 and already many have been sold. Peter has also arranged an accommodation package of 2 tickets and a double room for just £72 using the Hotel opposite Pink Punters Club. That is just £36 each for a night out with the old Ron Storme crowd with no worries about drinking, driving or taxis. To book tickets or ticket and accommodation package ring Peter 01767 681715 or 07989642926 www.ronstormes.com

DRESSING SERVICE Adam and Eve CELEBRATE FIRST YEAR

It will be a year in June 04 that three exceptional girls, Josie, Teresa and Liza opened their dressing service Adam and Eve. It has been a roller coaster ride with lots of ups and downs a few tears for them, but they have survived and are still good friends. In fact they have gone from strength to strength. I asked them if they would do it again? "most certainly" said Josie "We have learned a lot, gained lots of new friends and renewed old friendships. We seem to have acquired a new, extended family, that is how it is at A&E one big happy family. Customers phone for a chat, pop in for coffee, they themselves have gained new friends by coming to us. When we have our social evenings or one of our parties, very shy customers can't believe that within a short space of time they are chatting with other customers as if they have known them forever". That, I am sure, is why A&E are gaining a reputation for being a very friendly dressing service. Josie said "Its so nice when we see shy customers realise their dreams. They come to us, nervous and desperately seeking confidence and then they blossom. It's very rewarding". Josie, Teresa and Liza want to say a big thank you to everyone who has supported them in the past year and look forward too meeting more Utterly FABULOUS readers soon. THAI PRINCESS's - RAISE MONEY FOR HIV BABIES

Jade and Sammy bring the beauty, culture, style and taste of Thailand to West London in their restaurant 'The Princess Thai' at The Philbeach Hotel - but they never forget the problems in their home country. Last summer they arranged a Sunday event that raised nearly £3,000 for 'UK Thailand Children's Fund' reg charity 1076820 helping children in in Thailand born with HIV. This year they are planning an even bigger event using the hotel restaurant, bar, patio, bar and garden. The hotel has always been beautiful a real secret retreat but this spring hotel is giving it yet another makeover. Jade is looking for offers of help for the event with a Thai dancing, a beauty pageant to find "Miss Summer" (for all 'girls' not just Asian girls). For the final summer date visit the restaurant (see advert in this issue) or call Jade or Sammy on 0207 373 9046 or 07932 624446 .
