My Husband Betty
VERY POPULAR (book)
Journalist Helen Boyd discovered her husband cross-dressed. After much research, joy, soul searching, fun and after creating and running a partners support website - Helen wrote this no-holds barred partners eye view of the TG scene that EVERY tranny AND partner must read.

The Lazy Crossdresser
VERY POPULAR (book)
The jokey chapter titles like, "My Size - a random number between 8 and 16", undermines the quality of the advice in this book with 177 pages of text and sketches. But don't let me undermine the friendly, open and down right honesty of the author Charles Anders. This is a good read and is genuinely helpful.

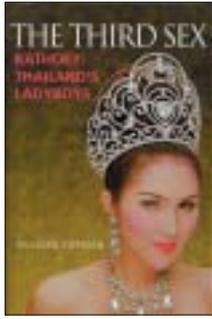

GINA The Woman Within (book) This book relates Gina Large's traumatic and very reluctant transgender journey. Giving a powerful insight into the suffering of gender dysphoria. It's a truly remarkable story and a wake-up call to society.

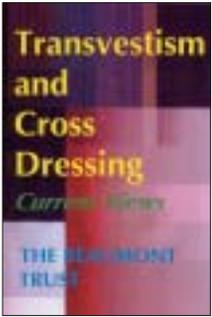

Crossing The Line (book) Photographer Sarah Davidmann presents her record of images that appear to exist somewhere between the polarities of male and female. Hard back book that reflects the visions and characters present on the London scene at the beginning of the new Millenium, including many who frequented The WayOut Club.

The Transgender Underground (book) This book exposes the real lives, opinions and sexual orientation of over a dozen members of the 'third sex'. Multi media artist, German born Claudia Andrei studied and frequented Ron Storme's at Stepney during his last year interviewing many of the regulars. You may well have met the people featured or indeed be the people featured. A wonderful snap shot of this period in time.

The Third Sex (book)
HIGHLY SORT AFTER The 'kathoei' phenomenon has been part of Thai culture for generations, it is the subject of a fascinating new book by Dr Richard Totman, a prize research fellow at Oxford University's Nuffield and a widely-travelled theatre director. He became probably the first "farang" (Thai for Westerner) to infiltrate the mysterious world of the lady-boys. He lived for months with kathoei girls and their families, learnt the language and spent much of his time talking to dozens of them and sharing their unique lifestyle.

TV & CD Current Views (book)
NEW EDITION This book by The Beaumont Society is a newly revised collection of articles by well qualified writers. It aims to answer, in a non judgemental, non directive way, many of the questions asked on their helplines, in a more detailed manner than a phone call can achieve. Subjects include labels, sexuality, transexualism, culture, history & law, counselling, support & coming out.

Girl Talk - (Magazines)
EXTREMELY POPULAR From the West Coast USA this lifestyle magazine features possibly the most glossy photo shoots on the tranny scene in a VERY professional Hollywood stylee. The models are great, the advice from make-up artists and stylists is excellent. The reports on the USA scene are fun and enlightening. This is a great magazine to collect and it's all good clean fun.

The WayOut Club

The WayOut Club is always full of Boys, Girls and Inbetweens including London's most stunning Trannies (TV/TS/TG), TGirls, She-Males, Drag Queens, male and female admirers, friends and family. When you arrive at the club you are magically spirited into our subterranean, WayOut world, from the smart street level reception by lift, (or staircase). This super venue, is in a discreet location, with easy parking and taxis waiting at the door. We have wheelchair access. There is a separate changing area. The venue is air conditioned. The single level has two areas, a full on dance and cabaret room, plus a quieter room with plenty of seating including sofas. In the main room WayOut's DJs mix music and to suit the mood of the night, from which can vary between 70's & 80's camp to the latest euphoric dance music. We encourage gorgeous 'girls' (and boys) to get up and strut their stuff on the WayOut catwalk.

12th Birthday in 2005 but remains an enigma.

The WayOut Club celebrates its 12th Birthday in 2005 but even after 600 non stop Saturday nights it remains an enigma. Not quite part of the London's gay scene, Not quite part of the straight scene, Not quite part of the fetish scene and strangely enough, (in some eyes) Not quite part of the Transgender scene. So what is The WayOut Club ?

Few could dispute that The WayOut Club is possibly the most eclectic club in the world bringing together the most diverse collection of people in one place. Every Saturday you can find every age, race, culture, sexuality and every GENDER. There is only one restriction on entry and that is that you enter with an open mind. Once in the club there are no judgments. At WayOut whether dressed by top designers or Oxfam everyone wants to be your friend. The club has a busy dance floor but many come not to dance but to chat. Some have hardly missed any of the 600 nights at the club.

Joy in diversity.

The WayOut Club was founded by Vicky Lee and Steffan Whitfield to provide a "way out" for those that didn't quite fit in elsewhere especially those that cross-dressed for whatever reason and those that were very "in touch with their feminine side" as well as those that like to mix with them. Vicky (a self proclaimed transgendered - inbetweeny) and Steffan (a very open hearted, gay, female impersonator and entertainer) knew that the "tranny" scene lacked a weekly opportunity for a community to grow. From the first night more than 100 people attended the night and a community did grow. The Transgender scene has matured over the last 12 years and now offers many more opportunities. Yet still The WayOut Club offers something very special and VERY unique and that is joy in diversity.

A few visitors can be confused by the heady mix at The WayOut Club. Some may say or do inappropriate things. Sex, Drugs, exposed genitals and bad (rude) attitude are NEVER acceptable at WayOut and should be reported to security or management immediately. Those that ignore this common decency will be expelled and may be banned.

Steffan has always encouraged those around him to perform and he lives to be creative for an audience. Every week at The WayOut Club we put on a show or special event taking an "intermission" from dancing at 2am for 30minutes.. Each of these shows is a "one off" and the scale and the effort that goes into casting, soundtracks, costume, scenery, props and choreography is a miracle achieved only by our love for performing and the commitment to giving The WayOut Club audience something that is fun, special and unique. There are those that support Steffan and myself who ensure our continuity and I would like to take this opportunity to thank some outstanding support in a difficult year from Miss Sarah Lloyd, Miss Paula Pure, DJ Titch and Miss Kit Kat. For my part the effort and the expense that we have made together brings a "focus" to a visit to The WayOut Club and make the night special and "memorable". In our new diary we define the third Saturday as TEETH TITS AND TIARA TRIBUTES and the last Saturday as LETS GO TO THE MOVIES you can expect with the help of our team to enjoy some outstanding shows through 2005 into 2006.

Launch pad for many new performers

The WayOut Club has been the launch pad for many new performers. Our new diary designates EVERY second Saturday as STAR SEARCH. A night when YOU can "take to the stage". Whether you sing, mime, juggle, or have a great costume and a sexy wiggle, you can win the prize of £150 by encouraging a rapturous applause from The WayOut Club audience.

One such newcomer in 2004 was Miss Sarah Lee (named after her "mother" Vicky Lee). Sarah nervously stepped up to the mic to sing a Will Young song and entranced us with an amazing singing voice. "Mother and sisters" gathered around her and a year later she has developed her "image" and material and an enthusiastic regular performer in WayOut shows and also weekly at Madame Jo Jo's in Soho.. You can catch Sarah Lee and many more SHOW SCENE QUEENS on the first Saturday of the month as this is the night when we will showcase a personal appearance by some of the best of London's "alternative entertainment".

To enter Star Search or any of our contests just register with Vicky Lee, Steffan or Sarah Lloyd before 12.30 On the night and be ready in our dressing room with your backing track by 1.30 the contests and shows start at 2am.
