The area on and around Canal Street referred to as the "Gay Village" is highly recommended. Every bar is gay run and friendly. The area is policed in close association with LGBT guidelines. The area is the home of 'Sparkle' transgender celebration every July. Due to the regular Northern Concord meeting every Wednesday, this has traditionally been the prime night for Tgirls to hit the village street - but every night is busy and friendly. Friday and Saturday night attracts more straight girls and boys who can be a handful. Although generally well intentioned, be prepared on the street to cope with their overconfident impertinent questions. But in the bars this is unlikely to happen as the venues are well managed with good security.

Miss Dee Chanelle's Miss TS International pageant reaches it's Diamond Year in 2009

The 5 year search is over for the the biggest transgender pageant in the UK! Miss TS Diamond is now scheduled for late summer of 2009 to bring to you the ten winning beauty queens of Miss TS International from 2004 to 2008. This of course includes Miss Vivienne Robles Lacson (Venezuela- 2004) Miss Asunta Mae (Pakistan-2005) Miss Carmen Regine Contfait (Seychelles- 2006) Miss Ruby Bella Cruz (Costa Rica- 2007) and the newly crowned Miss Mika Mae Dela Vega (Italy-2008). The 1st runners-up are also guaranteed candidates .

Miss TS International pageant has been the inspiration of energetic chanteuse Miss Dee Chanelle who has organised and hosted the event for these five years. She has provided a platform for transsexuals to present themselves in glorious costumes some of which have been spectacular over the years. From national costumes through fantasy wear to sexy black lingerie to glamorous gowns, this has ben a modern day pageant with a very unique twist.

Miss Mika is the latest to be crowned, as Miss TS International 2008 on 23rd November at London's 'Heaven' nightclub, in the same year that she was a 'Miss Alternative London' winner. She impressed the board of judges including WayOut's Miss Vicky Lee and journalist and author of the hit "Shameless" Mr Paul Burston from beginning to end. Miss TS Mexico, Marianne Rivera also secured a Diamond spot by winning the 1st runner-up title. The event was an immense success with great support from the LGBT community, admirers, family and friends.

Miss TS Diamond promises to be the ultimate spectacular with special guest performances from Miss Dee, herself, Farrah Mills, Jamie Lee, Toni, Jelissa Jaconi, Taura May and many other performers and surprise guests. You really must make every effort to be at this event.

For dates and details of this event check out the 'Diamond Collection' at www.bml-pageants.com

Miss Sahhara's Queen of Nations Beauty Brains & Creativity an annual three day contest & Transgender Celebration

For the third year, a once oppressed minority of women celebrated their growing emancipation through a platform for transgendered girls to confidently express themselves as talented, intelligent, and creative individuals in a week of events in central London.. The Queen of Nations Pageant is a glamorous spectacle of femininity and beauty brought to you by Miss Sahhara. Yes this is the same amazing friend to the stars who is a stylist, (move over Gok Wan), catwalk choreographer, transgender supermodel who also brings you Mask a free magazine at www.maskuk.co.uk.

The pageant requires all the contestants to be current winners, runner-ups and award winners of a transgender pageant from anywhere around the world. So that all are practiced at presenting pageant winning beauty, glamour and a certain feminine 'je nes se qua'. ( Well ... that's why the girls have all been entering Alternative Miss London at the WayOut Club ).

The three stages of the contest this year started with a talent contest which was held at 'Madam Jo Jo's' on the 16th June. On 18th June the contestants fought it out on the catwalk at the cellubrious 'Soho Revue Bar'. For the Grand Finale the circus moved on to 'The Bloomsbury Theatre' where each contestant was required to represent the country of her choice. The show was hosted by Richard and Lea (Dicky and Dolly), ex Big Brother contestants and presenters of the Morning Show on Gaydar Radio. Belly dancers, Drag and R&B performances interspersed the pageant and the winners were picked by a host of V.I.P. celebrity judges. The contestants paraded in introduction wear, national costumes, swim wear, and evening gown. Finally Miss Sophia Logan who represented Venezuela won the Title Queen Of Nations 2008. She received her crown from 2009 winner Miss Amanda De Leon who represented her families home The Philippines.

I am sure that Sophia will be appearing in Mask Magazine as did previous winner Amanda.

If you would like to get involved in the 2009 event (and you should), or you want to get along to see the three stages of the next event go to www.queenofnations.com and you can email Sahhara at: queenofnations@yahoo.com
